

Election Day and Early Voting to Proceed as Planned after Storm

Unicoi County, Tenn. – The election on Tuesday, November 5, 2024 will proceed as planned with only one minor polling place change. At this time, the Unicoi County Election Commission will be moving voting at the Temple Hill Elementary School from the gymnasium to the library. Voters will enter the building directly at the library entrance at the left rear of the building.

There are no other changes to polling place locations anticipated at this time. Our office will remain in close contact with community members regarding the recovery efforts and will announce any other changes as soon as possible if they become necessary. Election Day hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on November 5th.

If you are currently displaced because of flood damage to your home, you are still eligible to vote. We encourage you to early vote, and we can determine whether or not to update your voting address.

All registered voters in Unicoi County are eligible to early vote. That will be held at the Election Commission office at 106 Nolichucky Avenue in downtown Erwin. It will begin October 16 and run through October 31, including Saturdays. Exact hours can be found on our website at unicoivotes.com or by calling our office at 423-743-6521.

###